PRIVATE DRIVEWAY for EVO Building

An aerial photograph showing a street scene. At the top, a private driveway for the EVO Building is marked. Below it, a row of cars is parked along the curb. A large, rectangular area of land, labeled 'PROPOSED SITE', is situated between the street and an alleyway. The site is mostly bare earth with some sparse vegetation. At the bottom, an alleyway provides egress and ingress to a parking garage. A white delivery truck is parked in the alleyway, and a trash pickup truck is also visible. A person in a high-visibility vest is standing near the trash truck. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, providing a clear view of the layout and surrounding infrastructure.
